Panacea Announces Ignition Premier Integrator Status

Premier Status Certification Recognizes Panacea's Expertise with the Ignition Platform

Montgomeryville, PA (December 10, 2019) – Panacea is proud to announce our approval as a Premier Integrator for Inductive Automation's Ignition platform. The Premier Integrator program is the highest partner level Inductive Automation offers and is meant to recognize companies that demonstrate:

- Top tier technical expertise with Ignition
- Industry specific knowledge
- A commitment to Inductive Automation community participation
- Proven project experience
- Gold Certification in the latest Ignition release

The Premier Integrator certification provides reassurance for Panacea's current clients on our ability to deploy, maintain, and manage Ignition. It also provides confidence for prospective clients on our ability to navigate Industry regulations in new deployments as well as maintenance of existing platforms.
