Panacea Announces Ignition 7.9 Certification

Certification Process Verifies Panacea's Ability to Deploy the Ignition Platform

Montgomeryville, PA (February 1, 2019) – Panacea is proud to announce our recognition as a Certified Integrator for Inductive Automation's Ignition 7.9. This certification demonstrates our knowledge of designing and troubleshooting Ignition projects. Certification requires completing a rigorous training set and hands-on certification test. This certification also demonstrates our competency across all standard Ignition modules.
